Working hours for each position	7 hrs a day that is 2 days per week
Working hours	14 hours per week - Scotland 14 hours per week – Northern Ireland
Responsible to	Project Co-ordinator
Appointment type	Permanent
Location	Home based with regional travel

Job Purpose

The main purpose of the job is to provide a positive experience for clients who have been referred to the project/support group from various sources. The role holder will be responsible for facilitating the journey for the client from referral to the correct team and into the support group. It will involve inputting data, creating spreadsheets, managing mail outs, being responsible for email inbox, supporting the team for events and any other general admin tasks as required.

You will receive referrals from various professionals, such as nurses, GPs, psychologists, social workers, and voluntary sector organisations, as well as self-referrals. Referrals may be submitted through our referral forms via email or post, or individuals may contact the service directly.

Your responsibility as an Outreach & Administration Officer is to gather comprehensive details at the referral stage, ensuring that all necessary information is obtained to facilitate an initial assessment of the person's needs by the appropriate team. Additionally, you may engage with individuals interested in volunteering for the service.

You will also support the Project Coordinator in the promotion and development of peer support groups for Deaf people affected by cancer in your area. Groups will be supported by volunteers and transition to user-led throughout the project. It is anticipated that this will include planning activity, liaising with guest speakers, organising social activities, and providing information and awareness sessions etc.

You will also support the team's Communications and Marketing Officer with elements of our social media and promotional work within your geographic area.

- Duties and Responsibilities
- Referrals:
- Accept referrals through various channels (phone, email, text) and accurately input data into the CRM system.
 - Create new client profiles on the CRM system.

- Understand and follow the safeguarding policy and procedures when handling referrals.
- Respond to project-related enquiries and provide necessary administrative support.
- Assist volunteers with administrative tasks when required.
- Keep the CRM system updated with client and volunteer information.
- Create and maintain Excel spreadsheets for data management.
- Sort incoming and outgoing mail and handle other ad-hoc administration tasks.
- Assist in organising and preparing social activities and related events.
- Support the team in organising community events.
- Seek assistance from the Office Administrator for additional support, bookings, rentals, and related tasks.
- Adhere to all policies and procedures for effective collaboration.

Working with the Deaf community and peer support groups

- To increase awareness and interest in peer support groups within the Deaf community.
- To provide group support volunteers, group leaders and peer support groups with support, training, development and practical services.
- To contribute to Self Help UK training networks, briefings and development events for groups and group members.

HR:

- Ensure timely disposal of records according to retention policies.
- Provide administrative support to managers in the recruitment of staff and volunteers.

Customer service and reception:

- Fulfil reception duties and be the initial point of contact for the project.
- Handle telephone (if appropriate), email, and face-to-face enquiries from staff and visitors, ensuring timely responses.
- Support and direct volunteers and staff who are not present in the office.

Other duties:

- Attend and contribute to team meetings.
- Participate in relevant training and networking events.
- Perform other reasonable duties as assigned by your line manager.

This job description does not contain an exhaustive list of duties, and you may be required to undertake additional responsibilities consistent with the scope of the position. It is a dynamic document which will be subject to review with the post-holder to adapt and develop the role according to the service needs and company policies.

Travel: Willingness to travel from time to time across the UK to provide support or deliver engagement activity within Deaf communities.
